Dedication

Because of her willingness to contribute her time and efforts to help us in our various activities during this year, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1950 Coyote to Mrs. Lena S. Brown.

As a proof of our appreciation we have nothing better than this edition to give. We gratefully and sincerely dedicate it to her.

The Seniors of 1950

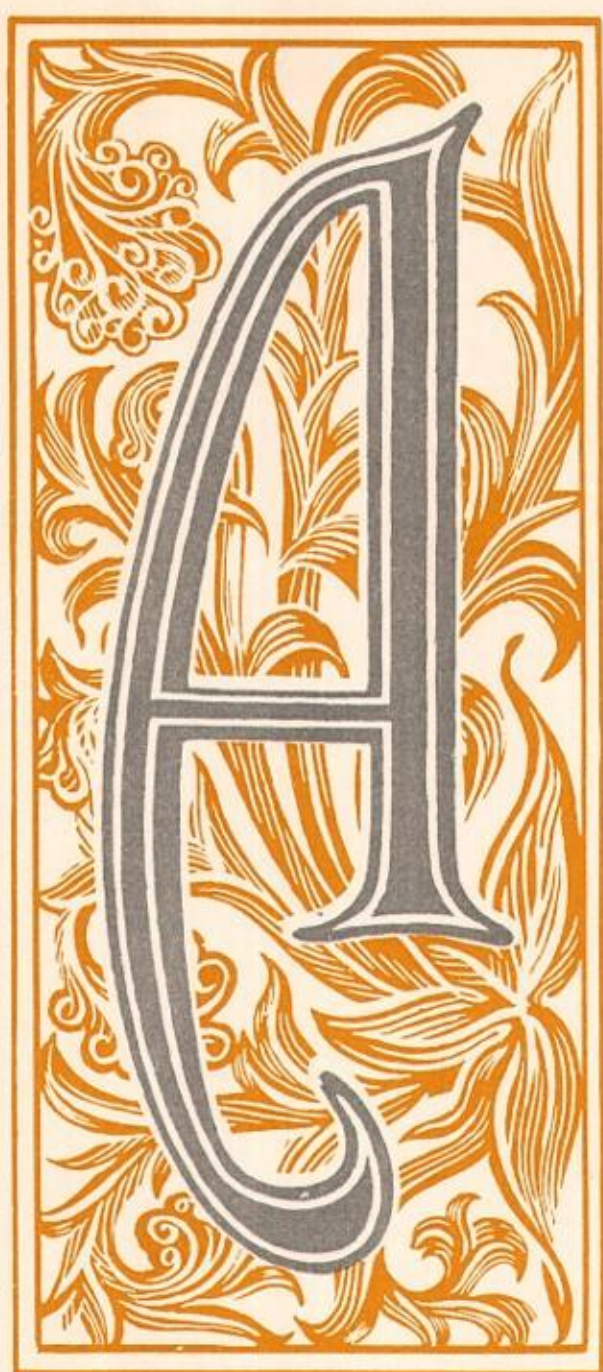

Mr. L. D. Hendricks

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

"Youth stands high on a cloud-covered hill
As dusk gathers in and the earth is still,
And he looks far out through wondering eyes
To the rim of the world where it meets the skies
And the vast unknown where his future lies.

Underneath his feet is the peaceful soil
Made rich by hardships, struggle, and toil:
And rooted deep in this soil is he
With friendly hands and a Soul that's free
Where a youth can be what he wants to be.

There's a dream in his heart as he looks into space
Through steady eyes and with firm set face;
And he sees his ship with his flag at her mast
As she sails away from a life that is past
Into the unknown where his lot is cast."
